Oil Excitements in Harrison County. New Wells Put Down - Hotel Change-Notes and Personals.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., March 20 -The oil excitement of Jarvisville is running high, and the people of that neighborhood are very much encouraged. They think that this will develop into one of the best oil producing fields in the state. A number of new wells came in during the past week and all proved to be good producers. Fourteen new wells have been located and drilling will be commenced at once. There are already nineteen producing wells in this field, with a daily output of from 500 to 600 barrels, which afford a revenue to the farmers interested of about $3,000 per month. There are also two gassers, one on the Bennett farm and the other on Payne's place. During the past week the South Penn company have lo-cated a number of new wells near Wilsonburg.

Shinnston is to have a bank. The enterprising citizens of that little town have subscribed $25,000 for this purpose have subscribed $25,000 for this purpose and have taken steps to secure letters, of incorporation. The bank will occupy the Watson building, and it is expected to open May 1. C. A. Short will be president and M. C. Jarrett, cashier. Col. John Ross has sold out his interest in the Walker House to John A. Parent and D. G. Huckman, of Alexandric Va. and will be president and and property of the procession and the control of the procession and the control of the procession and the control of the procession and the procession

Mr. John S. Thompson, of Adamsville, met with an accident a few days ago, that may cost him his life. He started to the blacksmith shop with a well-bucket. The horse he was riding became frightened at the bucket and threw Mr. Thompson, fracturing and dislocating three of his ribs and otherwise inflicting internal injuries. Mr. Thompson is sevently-four of age and is not in physical comittion to baffle these injuries. He is widely known as a cattle dealer and has been quite successful in the business world.

DEWEY IN MANILA BAY. Didn't Swear, but Used Strong Lan

guage Once. San Francisco Examiner: Lieutenant

Charles G. Calkins, who navigated the cruiser Olympia, the flagship of the United States squadron, Admiral Dewey and his fleet to their immortal victory at Manila Bay, on the morning of May 1, arrived from the Orient on February 2, and went at once to his Berkeley

2, and went at once to his Berkeley home.

"I will not try to tell you how many times I have been asked to describe how Admiral Dewey looked and acted and spoke on that occasion," said the lieutenant. "Still, it is a story that is always pleasing to recall. I had known Admiral Dewey for thirty years, and I cannot say that his demeanor that morning was greatly different from what it always is. Always he impresses one as a man who knows himself, who knows what he has to do and who means to do it. Such was Admiral Dewey then. He was cool, alert, intense and for the most part silent.
"No, I cannot recall any particular immortal words on his part. He ob-

"I'm afraid I'm responsible for all the swearing that Admiral Dewey did that day, although I know that he is capable of using strong language when it is absolutely necessary.

"There so no story, by the way, that I would like well enough to run down. It cropped up for the last time three or four days ago in the smoking room of the steamer Coptic. It was that we had an English pilot to take our fleet lato Cavite. That story is of a piece with the one that popped up in London that we had English gunners. One was just as true as the other. We had no English pilot, and our gunners were Americans, Then I may say there was no truth in the reports that we got information about the hydrography and the defenses of the harbor from the consul there."

DR. WOOD'S Norway Pine Syrup seems especially adapted to the needs of the children. Pleasant to take; soothing in its influence. It is the temedy of all remedies for every form of throat and lung disease.

The Experience of Well Known Persons Ought Surely to be Convincing.

Convincing.

We will tell you what will cure the worst kind of a case of backache caused from the kidneys. We will not only tell you, but will refer you to people in all walks of life in the city of Wheeling who have used Kid-ne-olds with the best of results. We ask you to read the statement from Mrs. J. C. Williams, residing at 9 Florida street, who says:

"I was troubled with disordered kidneys for about ten years, and it seemed that nothing I could get would cure me. The pain across the small of my back was very severe at times. About six years ago I had an attack of yellow jaundice, which left me in a yery bad condition; it seemed to settle in my kidneys. My complexion was very bad, the whites of my eyes were yellow, as is usual with jaundice, and nothing I was ever able to get during all that time would improve my condition.

"I read about Morrow's Kid-ne-olds" nothing I was ever able to get during all that time would improve my condition.

"I read about Morrow's Kid-ne-olds and Liverlax, and decided that I would try them. I obtained some at Charles R. Goetze's drug store, and after taking them for a few days my condition was very greatly improved, and-my complexion began to get clear. I procured more, and continued the treatment until I was entirely relieved of the pains across my back, and my eyes and complexion were restored to their natural and healthy color."

Morrow's Kid-ne-olds are not pills, but Yellow Tablets, and will cure all kidney disorders, backache, nervousness and sleeplessness. They are put up in wooden boxes, which contain enough for about two weeks' treatment, and sell at 50 cents a box. Morrow's Liverlax are small red granules, and will cure constipation. They sell at 25 cents a box. Both remedies are for sale by Charles R. Goetze, the druggist. A descriptive booklet will be mailed upon request by John Morrow & Co., Chemists, Springdeld, Ohlo.

HAVING FUN WITH A BURGLAR Victim Feigned Being Asleep and the

Intruder was Baffled. Chicago Tribune: The burglar who had served a short term in the Bridewell for being caught while trying to leave a house he had entered without the authority of the owners, was engaged in the practice of his profession "They don't catch me in no self-act in' cage this time," he said to himself, as he raised a rear window of the house he had selected as the scene of his operations, and cautiously insinuated his head through the opening. "I don't see no cards tellin' me it's all right, and not to make a noise, and will I please shut the pantry window, so's the things won't freeze. I guess it's all straight." With a whispered caution to his confederate, who was to remain on guard outside, he crawled noiselessly in, stood a few moments to listen, and then pro ceeded to penetrate further into the in-

Finding only a few things worth stealing on the lower floor he started up the stairway.

One of the steps creaked, and he stopped instantly.

Not the slightest sound came from the rooms above him, however, and, after waiting a reasonable time, he moved forward and upward with great caution.

Entering what seemed to be the main upper room, he glanced about him.

Sufficient light came in from the street lamp across the way to enable him to see a bed in one corner, occupied by a man, whose deep and regular breathing furnished sufficient evidence that he was sound asleep.

The man's clothing was hanging at the foot of the bed.

The burgiar moved in that direction. Instantly he heard a loud whisper.

"Don't do that! You'll wake him!"

Annoyed and alarmed at what he concelved to be a wholly unauthorized and bungling attempt on the part of his confederate to take a hand in the fine work of the job, instead of remaining at his post of duty outside, he turning has head, and moved back a step or two.

The burglar glanced at the sleeper, who had not stirred, and then moved toward the door, with the intention of administering a voiceless rebuke to his reckless confederate.

"You blamed foo!!" whispered the voice again. "You haven't got sense enough to rob a sandbank. Let me do this!"

The burglar peered into the gloom of the upper hallway.

Not seeing his pal, he stepped out through the door.

The burglar felt a cold sweat breaking out all over him.
Then, as the savage yell of a flerce dog, apparently under the bed, came startlingly to his ear, he jumped with a yell of terror to the side-window, five or six feet away, plunged through it, carrying the sash with him, and rolled down the kitchen roof into a deep snow bank, from which he emerged a second later, and fied like a deer, followed by his bewildered confederate.

The market after a sensational movement in Sugar and the local transportation shares, closed weak with mixed net changes. Interest centered largely in Sugar, in which the transactions were over 191,000, with a total of about 990,000 shares. Sugar opened with an advance of about eight points, ran off 3%, then touched 182, with a subsequent plunge of 18 points, closing with a net loss of about eight points. The extraordinary movement of this stock had a wide influence in other directions. Brooklyn Transit was lifted over six points and then lost much of the gain. Pronounced strength appeared in the Vanderbilts, Union Pacific, Northwestern, the coalers and Chicago Terminal preferred while some of the internationals made a show of etrength in the early dealings in sympaths with the higher range in London. The Tobacco stocks were extremely feverish. American Tobacco booke 6½, railied 9 and left off with a loss of 2; Continental Tobacco stumped 14½, and was off 3 points at the close. The liquidation in these stocks was attributable to the reported formation of a new opposition tobacco company. Manhattan retained the greater part of four points. There was a disposition on the part of sensational elements to let commission houses have stocks and subsequently while Sugar was tumbling and call money reached 9 per cent, prices were freely offered down. Sandard stocks, while easing with the recent market, receded in an orderly manner and the reaction in these securities from the best did not exceed two points except in special cases. Money on call toward the close eased with the last loan at 4 and offered at 3, but the market falled to respond to the changed conditions due to the supply of money offered and the reaction was unchecked to the end. The strength in Brooklyn Transit was coincident with a published interview with the president of the Brooklyn elevated stock for Brooklyn Transit stock had been arranged. The advance in Union Pacific and New York Central was timely with the announcement of the return of the leading interest in Vanderbilt stocks and gave rise to a renewal of rumors that Union Pacific might be absorbed by the New York Central. The opinion expressed, because of the action of the market, that the rise in London, which was a purchasec at the opening only, was maripulated from this side to facilitate the liquidation wich was evident in the market.

wheat ruled firm. May closed with a gain of 14 %. Corn and oats each advanced 14 %. Pork declined 56 714;; lard 214 % and ribs left off unchanged. There were a number of strong factors in the wheat market at the commencement and traders started business in a buillish mood. Cables were higher and freezing weather was reported in the wheat belt, which, it was thought, might prove damaging to the growing plant. The statistics were also regarded as rather favorable to the buying side. World's shipments were considerably smaller than predicted and buying side. World's shipments were considerably smaller than predicted and the amount on passage showed an increase for the week of only 80,000 bushels. May opened %@ico higher at 67%@68%c, and as crop damage claims became more numerous than ever, the price rose to 68%@68%c, Apparently repliable reports from both the northwest and southwest regarding formers delivliable reports from both the northwest and southwest regarding farmers deliv-eries were to the effect that recepts were being heavily reduced and in many cases were insufficient for the requirements of the local millers. As the senders of the information backed up their claims with messages to bus, shorts became nervous and covered shorts became nervous and covered freely, advancing May to 681/2c. Atlantic port clearances were rather light, amounting to only 157,000 bushels, but that was exclusive of reports from Newport News and Gulf ports. The market ruled very firm the greater part of the session, but near the end taking of profits by scalpers resulted in a reaction to 67%c and the price at the close was 67%c buyers. Light country acceptances and small receipts strengthened corn. A fairly good speculative business was done at some little improvement in prices. Receipts 209 cars. May opened a shade higher at 31¼634%c, advanced to 31½c and closed with buyers at 31%c. The cash demand which improved and resulted in sales of 569,000 bushels for immediate rail shipment.

NEW YORK—Sweeping price changes were scored in to-day's metal market. Plg iron warrants advanced about 50 points, copper went off 25 to 75 points, in dropped 12½ to 15 points, and lead declined 5 points. The improvement in iron was directly due to a sudden influx of orders and a refusal of producers to sell at anything like last prices. The other departments turned weak under a temporary withdrawal of buyers and more urgent offerings, together with disappointing cables. The metal exchange at the close called pig iron warrants firm, with $10 50 bid and $11 00 asked; lake copper $16 75 bid and $17 25 asked; tin easier with $23 62½ bid and $23 75 asked; lead easier with $4 40 bid and $4 45 asked; spelter firm at $6 35 bid and $4 45 asked. The brokers price for lead is $4 20 and for copper $17 50.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK-The spot business in cotton goods has again been quiet to-day, but with a steady demind through the mails. Business has reached an avrage total. The tone of the market shows no material change. Print cloths are quiet, but Fall River prints firm.
